Dedication

During the three years that you have been here, you have gained the applause of both faculty and students as a capable instructor, leader, and friend. We would especially like to thank you for your help with the prom, advising the Ripper, and for the many other things you have done for our class. So with these thoughts in mind, we dedicate to you, Miss Haderlein, the Ripper of '53 as our way of saying THANK YOU.

"The First Class Passengers"

"FIRST CLASS PASSENGERS"

Walls were bulging and records were broken when the one hundred and forty-two freshmen entered S. H. S. on September 6, 1949. The aroma of burlap bags and the clicking of high heels filled the halls on that dreaded initiation day. All was forgiven, however, when our homecoming float, "We got the bears up a tree" won first prize. Lois Verbeten and Ken Braun were freshman representatives in the homecoming court. Our class officers were: Glen Rohm, president; Kenneth Braun, vice-president; JoAnn Van Straten, secretary; and Nancy Cook, treasurer.

Back as sophomores we enjoyed seeing the freshmen bowing down to us, and carrying our books. We hope they had fun with their suitcases that day. The honor was ours when Carol Kimps was chosen by Eugene Kropp to be his date for the homecoming court. Our candidates were Russell Parker and Noreen Gilbert. Officers for that year were: President Tom Welhouse, Vice-President Bob Weishoff, Secretary David Consoer, and Treasurer Ken Braun.

Our Junior Prom was the highlight of the 1951-1952 trip at S. H. S. We danced in "dreamland" to the music of Sonny Mason and his orchestra. The theme, "Meet Me Tonight in Dreamland" was carried out by decorating the gym with our favorite dreams. King Harold Grady and Queen Beverly Riehl led the grand march. JoAnn Van Straten was general chairman of the prom and class president. James Wolff followed her lead as vice-president, Audrey Fischer as secretary, and Joyce Kropp as treasurer.

As seniors we near the end of our high school career. Harold Lange and Audrey Fischer filled the royalty position for the 1952 homecoming. Though, there are now one hundred and two in our class, we find them in all activities. Jim Wolff, our prom artist, led Student Council and edited the Blue Jay. Marilyn Schreiber and Ruth Reinke were chosen as co-editors of the Ripper. JoAnn Van Straten, Jean Eick and Joyce Kropp led the cheering section. Bernice Leisgang is president of the F. H. A. Nancy Cook, Jean Martin, Loretta Malueg, and Lynette Veitch are active in Dramatics. Joan Daniels is student director of the band. We have many participants in sports. They are: Larry Wirth, Harold Lange, Bob Weishoff, Ken Braun, Bob Coonen, Jim Tubbs, Stewart Droeger, Glen Rohm, Don Malueg, Tom Welhouse, LeRoy Blohm, Darrel Doersch, Earl Euclide, Harold Grady, Eugene Hebel, Jack Melotte, Don Swiecichowski, and Dave Wussow. Guiding our class through its final year are: Armen Armitage, president; Eugene Hebel, vice-president; Carol Jens, secretary; and Mary Lou Fischer, treasurer. Our senior advisors are Miss Haderlein, Miss Wormwood, Mr. Patchett, Mr. Weaver and Mr. Koepke.

Now, as we look back at the fun, the classes and the anxiety of these four years, we find it is with sad hearts we say "good-bye" to Seymour High and "thank you" for all it has given us.

Checking the Passenger List

SECOND CLASS PASSENGERS

Every graduate will admit that the junior year is one of the busiest for all high school students. Our second class passengers were busy during every minute of this year's trip. Their homecoming float "Witches brew make Panthers stew" won honorable mention. The junior representatives in the court were Carol Jean Stephani and Duane Wagner.

Student Council elections found junior candidates take to politics quite easily. Steve Rohloff was chosen by the student body for the council's vice-presidency.

November and December found the class secretary keeping up an active correspondence with orchestra agencies about music and committees were selected for the all-important annual prom. With the date set for April 24, talk of themes filled the homeroom periods after the teachers had been sworn to secrecy.

In sports we saw Glenn Mullen, Richard Mullen, Duane Doersch, Steve Rohloff, Duane Wagner, Nils Ullmer and Kay Plamann on the football gridiron or the basketball court. Delmar Mueller and Glendon Ward led cheers, while other members of the class participated in Pep Club, Spanish Club, Blue Jay, Chorus, F.H.A. and F.F.A. activities.

The class officers for the year are: Steve Rohloff, president; Kay Plamann, vice-president; Patricia Smith, secretary; and Douglas Buttles, treasurer. The class advisors included Miss Jenson, Miss Schiller, Mr. Korth and Mr. Flanagan.

THIRD CLASS PASSENGERS

After guiding the freshmen initiation, the third class passengers entertained at the annual Freshman-Sophomore Party. This started all the activities off for the year at S. H. S.

Lyle Laske and his date, Joan Mielke, were the homecoming representatives for the sophomore class. Back helping the B-team cheering section were Donna Van Straten, Guilford Mueller and Richard Van Dreel. Winton Severson, Ken Schuyler, Lyle Laske, David Peotter, John Walter, David Wendt, David Braun and Jim Walter displayed their ability in sports. Eva Kloehn led her class in the band with a solo part during the annual Christmas Concert. Many sophomores joined Nancy Marnocha and Nancy Melter in the vocal department. In all sincerity, we certainly wish this class the best of luck in their future trips and active participation in the activities of the school.

They elected as their officers David Wendt, president; Winton Severson, vice-president; Virginia Ramsdell, secretary; and Lyle Laske, treasurer. The advisors are Miss Peterson and Mr. Rynearson.

TOURIST CLASS PASSENGERS

One hundred and twenty-two shaky freshmen appeared on September 2, 1952. They were just becoming accustomed to everything when the grand and glorious initiation day arrived. The girls appeared in men's shirts and bib overalls, both on backwards and shredded to the elbows and knees. On their feet were men's work shoes of two different styles. Then, too, we'll never forget those freckles. The boys made their debut in girl's shorts and midriffs, and nylon stockings.

Certain members of the tourist class showed their ability immediately. Fern Eick and Merton Sherman were the homecoming candidates. Vyonne Gilbert and Carol Verbeten became B-team cheerleaders. Betty Lou Coonen displayed her dramatic ability in the one-act play contest. We, also, find the following prominent in debate; Helen Krahn, Gerald Walter, Bob Lotter, Jeanette Klimoski, and Richard Sarnowski. Otto Goettel has been an active participant in sports. Barbara Wussow has entertained us all out at pep assemblies with her fine vocal work. She and Betty Lou Coonen are also members of the Triple Trio. Others were active in the Dramatics Club, Science Club, and Blue Jay. We are glad to see the freshmen make such a fine showing for themselves.

The class officers are: Arthur Haas, president; David Grunwaldt, vice-president; Vyonne Gilbert, secretary; and Donald Barth, treasurer. Miss Kieffer and Mr. Halle are the class advisors.

DEBATE
"THE POLITICIANS"

The question for this years debate team was, "Resolved: That the Atlantic Pact Nations should form a federal Union. The affirmative team consisted of Dick Van Dreel and Janice Jenquin and the negative, Jean Graunke and Helen Krahn.

This "A" team attended the district tournament at Menasha on February 7. Miss Kieffer again advised the group.

SECOND ROW—B. Van Dreel, R. Van Dreel, M. Krueger, G. Rohm, J. Wolff.

FORENSICS
"THE ORATORS"

Forty students participated in Seymour's local contest on March 4. Twelve were selected by Mrs. Earl Fisk to represent Seymour at Oconto on March 12. The forensic coaches were Miss Kieffer, Miss Jenson, Mrs. Jenkins, and Miss Wormwood.

Dramatics Club

ONE-ACT PLAY CAST AND CREW—I. Stephani, J. Van Straten, N. Cook, B. Coonen, S. Pingel, J. Wurtzel, G. Pautz, Miss Wormwood, (seated) A. Brandenburg, A. Fischer.

This year's Dramatics Club with 90 members was one of the largest groups we have ever had. Members were divided into three section: Thespians, Costumes & Make-up, and Stage Crew. As always, the club was busy putting on the school programs and plays. At Thanksgiving, the actors in the play Turkey Gobblers had a grand time passing their plates for more of that delicious Thansgiving dinner which consisted, do you remember, ot grapes, cabbage salad, and cold cereal. Thank goodness that wasn't the real meal and guest Merle Krueger was finally accepted by the family of his girl-friend, Diane Baehler, particularly by the "small-fry", little sister, Donna Van Straten and grumbling younger brother, Jerry Martin.

The Christmas Promise, showed us how complicated life can get when some people make promises for other people! It certainly was a relief when brother, David Wendt, was able to decide his dates for himself without the "help"of his sister, Jane Zillmer, or his parents, Gene Hebel and Janice Jenquin. But all turned out well for everyone.

The officers for this year were Joan Van Straten, President, and Elaine Lange, Secretary with eight assisting committee chairmen.

Congratulations to the cast and crew ot the One-Act Play Group who presented The Last Laugh at three contests this year. Joan Van Straten, Nancy Cook, Betty Lou Coonen, and Ilamae Stephani gave fine, serious performances in their dramatic roles.

"EVER SINCE EVE"

Troubles arose aplenty for Johnny Clover and Spud Erwin, editor and business manager of the high school Penquin, when Miss Willard, the journalism teacher, insisted a girl assistant editor. Susan Blake, as the assistant, almost sent the Penquin to bankruptcy in her innocent desire to help. Lucybelle, a Southern charmer, compilcated the situation still more. Mrs. Clover, Mr. Quinn, Pres. Hughes, and "Coppy" all added laughter and understanding to the play.

HOMECOMING

The 1952 Homecoming was a big success. The traditional events started with Hobo Day on Thursday. Out of the many costumes of all kinds, Chester Bliss won a prize for the best foreign costume, Lynette Veitch for the funniest, Sharon Limberg for the most original, and Carol Jens for the most elaborate. Thursday night Merle Krueger led the snake dance twisting and turning down Main Street and ending at the bonfire. The cheering was terrific and everyone predicted our victory.

Friday afternoon the band led the Homecoming parade. The Dramatics Club received first prize on their float, and the FFA and the Junior Class received second and third. Then, Friday evening, came the biggest event of all—the game! The Indians, with Jim Tubbs and LeRoy Blohm as co-captains, defeated Oconto Falls with a score of 20-12.

After the Seymour victory, everyone hurried to the high school gym to enjoy dancing to the music of Gail Shepardson and his orchestra. Audrey Fischer and Harold Lange reigned queen and king of the event, and the court of honor included: Carol Jean Stephani, Duane Wagner, Joan Mielke, Lyle Laske, Fern Eick, and Merton Sherman. The gym was decorated with balloons, pennants, and pictures of Senior players. Jim Wolff did a swell job as general Chairman of the event. All in all, the 1952 Homecoming was one of the most successful in years.

WEST DE PERE 6 SEYMOUR 0
Capt. Larry Wirth

Seymour opened its football campaign against West De Pere's power laden Black Phantoms. The two teams battled on even terms until the final minutes when West De Pere scored the only TD of the game. Outstanding for the Indians until injuries forced them out of the game were Glen Rohm and Larry Wirth.

SEYMOUR 25 EAST DE PERE 6
Capt. Harold Lange

Sparked by Harry Lange's three touchdowns, one of which was a 86 yard gallop, the Indians downed East De Pere 25-6 for their first win of the season. Dave Wussow, Bob Weishoff, and Eugene Hebel were outstanding for Seymour.

KEWAUNEE 19 SEYMOUR 7
Capt. Bob Weishoff

Kewaunee caught an injury-ridden Indian eleven at its worst and romped off to a 19-7 victory. Although Seymour held a 7-0 half time lead on Eugene Hebel's 25 yard touchdown toss to Jack Melotte, they couldn't maintain the advantage and in the last half allowed the enemy to dent their goal line three times.

SEYMOUR 25 ALGOMA 19
Capt. Bob Coonen, Jack Melotte

Our Indians got back on the victory trail with a 25-19 win over Algoma's Wolves. The game was featured by a wild and wooly fourth quarter which saw both teams score twice. Harry Lange and Bob Coonen provided the offensive fireworks and Jack Melotte did a fine job defensively for the Indians.

SEYMOUR 20 OCONTO FALLS 12
Capt. Jim Tubbs, LeRoy Blohm

The tribal pow-wow for the benefit of old grads was a huge success as Co-Caps Jim Tubbs and LeRoy Blohm lead the Indians to a 20-12 Homecoming victory over a powerful Oconto Falls eleven. Tubbs and Blohm along with Larry Wirth and Earl Euclide featured with some rugged line play offensively and defensively.

SEYMOUR 13 OCONTO 6
Capt. Don Malueg, Ken Braun

Seymour furnished the Homecoming opposition for Oconto and was thrown off balance by the spirited play of the Blue Devils. After much huffing and puffing, the Indian juggernaut finally got into gear long enough to score two touchdowns and win 13-6.

SEYMOUR 13 PULASKI 7
Capt. Glen Rohm, Eugene Hebel

In the final game of the season, Seymour made it four straight by defeating its traditional rival, Pulaski, in a bitterly fought slam-bang thriller, 13-7. Glen Rohm scored the winning touchdown on a QB sneak in the final minute of play. Playing their last game for Seymour High, Stewart Droeger, Larry Wirth, Jim Tubbs, Harry Lange, Earl Euclide, Don Swiecichowski, Ken Braun, Bob Weishoff, Dave Wussow, Bob Coonen, Jack Melotte, LeRoy Blohm, Glen Rohm, Don Malueg, and Eugene Hebel rounded out their football careers in a blaze of glory by treating the fans to one of the finest games played at Rock Ledge Park.

All Conference football players were Larry Wirth, Jim Tubbs and Harry Lange. LeRoy Blohm and Bob Coonen received honorable mention.

BASKETBALL "B" Squad

Dave Wendt, Ken Schuyler and Richard Mullen, the three top scorers for the B Team, made 150, 145 and 114 points, respectively. Other players who saw action Duane Doersch, Kay Plamann, David Peotter, Otto Goettel, John Walter, Jim Sherman, and Robert Milburn. The season's record was eight wins and ten losses. Seymour had a total of 751 points to the opponents total of 787.

Probably the most thrilling game was the second game with Oconto, which went into an overtime. The B Team really furnished S. H. S. with many exciting minutes this season.

BASKETBALL "A" Squad

On March 7 Seymour defeated Oconto Falls, 58 to 55 at the Ocnto W.I.A.A. Regional Tournament. This completed the 1952-53 season for the Indians with a 6 win - 10 loss record for conference play, 2 losses for non-conference and 2 wins and 1 loss in tournament play. Although this record may not look particularly impressive, the games were exciting to the end. Five of the defeats were lost by four points or less. The opponents scored on the average of 56.6 points per game, while Seymour scored on the average of 55.2 per game.

Le Roy Blohm and Robert Weishoff were chosen by the squad as co-captains for this season. These two fellows led the scoring for the Indians with 334 points for Weishoff and 305 points for Blohm.

Seymour participated in the district tournament at Pulaski. The first game was lost to West De Pere, but the second game was a victory against Bonduel. This led to the game against Oconto Falls for the regional consolation.

Seymour took second place with a 7-3 record in the NEW Conference, placing next to Oconto which was in first place with a 7-1 record.

An important highlight was Rohm's home-run in the first inning of the Seymour-Pulaski game which Seymour won 16-4. Thirteen runs batted in gave Rohm the lead in this division while Sacks had the highest batting average with .410, also scoring 11 runs. He also led in doubles having 5 while Plamann shared honors with Rohm, each hitting a pair of triples.

The starting lineup included Wolff at second base, Sachs at third, Jens at first, Plamann at shortstop, Weishoff as catcher with Rohm, Goerl, and Ganzel as pitcher and outfielders. Husman also took his turn on the mound.

In the tournament at Pulaski, Seymour took Bonduel 8-3 but bowed to West DePere 3-1 in the second game after previously beating them twice.

Lettermen's Club

Our Lettermens' Club has been organized since the school year of 1950-51. Its purposes are to promote the athletic interests of its members, to provide good fellowship and reunions, to promote better athletics and higher standards of sportsmanship, and to elevate and support athletics at Seymour High School.

November 14th was the date of the annual Lettermen's Club dance. This annual project was a big success at football season came to a close and the basketball schedule began to be filled.

The late Dick Sachs was the winner of the award blanket, which is presented each spring to the outstanding all around athlete of the year. Winners of the award are selected by their interest and attitude as well as by their participation.

Present officers are: President, Eugene Hebel; Vice President, James Tubbs; Secretary, Larry Wirth; and Treasurer, Robert Coonen.

PEP CLUB

M. Tickler, P. Hein, L. Veitch, M. Weishoff

The motto of the Pep Club this year was, "Three cheers for Seymour". Membership was 84 strong. The goal of the club was to have better attendance at games.

Will we ever forget the guitar playing of Mr. Rynearson, the leap frog game, and burying the "old spirit" and the new being born?

The officers were President, Lynette Veitch; Vice-president, Pat Hein; Secretary-Treasurer, Mary Elyn Weishoff.

F.H.A.

Fifty-three new members were initiated in the Seymour chapter of the Future Homemakers of America this year. This made a total enrollment of one hundred and thirty-three members. With so many members it would seem to be a difficult task to find work for everyone, but the organization succeeded in finding jobs for each person.

Club members prepare and serve the food for the various banquets held during the year. They make money by selling food at the football and basketball games. Pencils with the basketball schedule printed on them are sold at the beginning of the season. Later in the year a feature movie was sponsored.

Outstanding events of the year are the Mother and Daughter Banquet and the annual style show held in May. The new officers for the following year are installed at the banquet, and members who have earned special recognition are presented with awards. All students enrolled in Home Economics classes participate in the style show.

Following a well-planned program of work, Seymour's F.F.A. completed the year with much success. Mr. Stanley Rynearson, a new agriculture instructor, shared advisory responsibilities with Mr. Hanson.

Our officers — President, Merle Krueger; Vice-President, Glen Rohm; Secretary, James Tubbs; Treasurer, Eugene Hebel; Reporter, Leslie Wagner, and Chaplain, Charles Marcks attended a leadership training school at DePere.

The biggest event of the year, the Father-Son Banquet, was again successful with an attendance of 141. The quartet sang at this event which was held during the time our basketball team was developing into good form.

Magazine sales, which were started in the fall, contributed to the treasury. Another corn-growing contest was completed with outstanding results. Dick Haefs took first place in this contest with Lynn Kollath and Bill Cleven tied for second place.

A chapter farmer, Merle Krueger, received the Wisconsin Farmer Degree and was elected the State Vice-President from Section IV. Mr. Hanson and Merle, also, attended the National F.F.A. Convention at Kansas City, Missouri.

MEET ME TONIGHT IN DREAMLAND

"ALL SHIP'S PARTY"

As we stepped into the Seymour High School Gym on May 2nd, we were greeted by a picture frame of roses and angel hair. This set the theme for the 1952 "Dreamland" Prom. We caught the atmosphere created by the decorations immediately, so we ventured to the dance floor.

The ceiling was comprised of light and dark blue crepe paper streamers gathered in the center with a huge chandelier. The paper was hung in tiers to give the gym a tent effect. The walls were decorated with six picture frames trimmed with roses and angel hair of our favorite dreams. To our right we found ourselves traveling to the Orient to view a pagoda, a Japanese cherry tree and Mt. Fujiyama in the distance. We followed the stone path back to a garden of sweet peas in good old U. S. A. There was the garden gate and the frame furniture just for the '52 prom-goers. We stopped on our journey to see a prom silouette and to hear Sonny Mason and his orchestra play from the stage decorated with rose trellises.

Walking on, we saw the child's dream complete with a gingerbread house and peppermint sticks. We couldn't avoid the red and green lollipop stop and go lights. The candy cane gentleman in his top hat directed us to the nature scene, which included a waterfall surrounded by evergreens. The last one was a city at night with the street lamp and a park bench. It seemed to be a good time to remember—"The many hours of making sweet peas"—"Where's the rose pattern?"—"Any more paint brushes?"—"How about this and how about that?" However, it was well worth it and then we looked at our dance program and found ourselves dancing away the evening.

We stopped for breath only once when Harold Grady and Beverly Riehl were crowned King and Queen of the 1952 Prom by the '51 royalty, Helen Reis and Marlin Wagner. Those in the Court of Honor were Jo Ann Van Straten and David Consoer, Shirley Wagner and Le Roy Blohm, Joyce Kropp and Kenneth Braun, and Audrey Fischer and Merle Krueger. Our two little pages for the evening were Kathy Flanagan and Christine Cook.

It was a big evening for everyone and we disliked having it become a memory, but wait — there'll be another one next year!

Souvenirs of the Trip

The Will

We, the graduating class of 1953 of Seymour High School, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby declare our last will and testament.

Joyce Kropp and Ken Braun will their high school romance to Donna Van Straten and Terry Kuehne. Mary Lou Fischer and Carol Peterson leave their pleasant personalities to everyone. Elaine Lange bequeaths her Pepsodent smile to Marvin Sievert, while her brother Harold gives his "52" crown to next year's homecoming king. "Love of Sailors" is donated to Donna Land from Bernice Leisgang. John Leisgang gives his pull with the teachers to Terry Nagel. Suzzann Bloedorn wills her love of Appleton to Mary Blohm, who doesn't seem to be able to see past Seymour's limits. Steve Rohloff will now have the nickname of "Shag", which LeRoy Blohm gladly gives. Carol Jens and Carol Cornelius will their love for motorcycles to Judy Wurtzel and Billy Frisbie. Sharon and Carol Blom donate their "sisterly love" to the Tubbs Twins. Noreen Gilbert and Lois Verbeten give their Charleston act to Duane Wagner and Ken Schuyler. At the same time Nancy Cook gives her soprano voice to Elsie Vanden Heuvel. Dave Consoer wills his love for apartments to all those who are fortunate enough to live in one. In the music world, Eugene Hebel gives his music drumsticks to Phyllis Wirth, while Joan Daniels gives her first chair in the flute section to Barbara Droeger. Kathy Vanden Heuvel and Jean Eick bestow upon Audrey Brandenburg their love for the alumni. Loretta Malueg shares her love for parties to Wimpy Severson. Don Malueg leaves his "double trouble" to all the boys. Larry Wirth wants to rid himself of his crutches to anyone who is unfortunate enough to need them. Jim Wolff leaves his artistic ability to the decoration committee of all Junior Proms. Janet Ziesemer gives her job as waitress to her sister and Lynette Veitch's shortness is shared with Nils Ullmer. JoAnn Van Straten gladly gives her front seat in office practice to anyone who is active enough to earn it, while Earl Euclide gives his close friendship with Mr. Weaver to anyone else who would like to talk a lot in class. LaVern Sassman wants to put all the books he never used back on the shelves. Wanda Rollo is going to give her argyles to Jim Sherman. Glen Rohm leaves his appeal to girls to anyone who needs a girl. Charles Sommers doesn't want to will anything, he just wants his comb back from the girls in his homeroom. Dennis Panetti gives his ability to go through locked doors to the custodians in case one forgets his key. Marlene Sherman gives her love of mankind to Judy Burns, and Darrel Doersch wills his tall stature to Dick Sutliff. Violet Cornelius leaves her place on the Oneida bus to her sister Lois. Gerry Pautz bestows one of her boxers to Janice Sutliff, while Gary Mayer donates his $8.00 silde rule to Glen Ward. Jane Zillmer wills her "gift of gab" to Nancy Ziegenbein. Ardis Krause wishes Judy Spaude to have her love of neighbors. Jeanette Klitzke gives her clever laugh to Windy Miller, while Don Abel gives his shyness to Jerry Martin. Bob Eick bequeaths his car to his sister. At the same time Marilyn Muller donates her Studebaker to Jim Baxter. John Melotte leaves his fatherly attitude to Merton Sherman. Sharon Swann leaves her love for Skateland to anyone who likes to skate. Audrey Fischer is going to let Shirley Pingel share her interest in Pulaski. Marilyn Schreiber and Ruth Reinke leave their happy dispositions to Janice Welhouse and Jean Graunke. Geraldine Schroeder wills her dark black hair to Nancy Kroner, while Joyce Heuser leaves her red hair to Ione Ossmann. Irene Schmit bequeaths her love for dancing to all the freshman boys. Ilamae Stephani gives her locker to any freshman girl who wants it. (It seems to be magnified to attract boys.) LeRoy Rahn loses his heart to Janice Haefs. William Otto leaves his deep voice to his brother. Marjorie Moser leaves her big brown eyes to those who need them. Joleen Mueller gives her love of Verbeten's to Vyonne Gilbert. Leslie Mueller shares his farming interests with Bobby Lotter. Orlo Moeller wills his speaking ability to the Junior Speech Class. Donald Grady leaves his brotherly love to anyone who wants it, while his brother Harold Grady gives his basketball suit to Jerry Eick. Richard Haefs leaves his Ford to all those who live in the country. Bill Vanden Heuvel, also, leaves his Ford, but to his brother. Jane Hartwig gives her Math ability to all Math classes. Jim Hillsberg gives his love for U. S. History to next year's class. Barbara Jourdan leaves her quietness to Virginia Babbitt. Helen Kaczrowski gives her small waist line to all girls who are hoping for one. Marlene Maas gladly shares her work in the "A and P" with Cletus Goffard. Jean Martin bestows her grandmother parts in the plays to any other girl who likes to act. Merle Krueger gives his prize animals to Jim Draeger. Marvin Biese wills his tall, dark and handsome appearance to Whitey Braun. Lukas Bruger wills his ability to study in study hall to Jerry Klarner. Bob Coonen has already left his class ring and football. Doris Ganzel leaves her dark brown freckles to Judy Prelipp. Warren Fassbender passes on his good humor to all unhappy ones around school, while Stewart Droeger wills his love for the freshmen girls to next year's Seniors. Dave Wussow leaves his love for Black Creek to all those who might be interested. Eunice Wendt gives her "go to me, come from me" to the music department. Jerry Zahn shares his fast driving to whoever wants to live dangerously. Leslie Wagner bequeaths his "A's" to all the fellow strugglers. Mary Ann Goettel gives her love for farm life to Phronsie Jenquin. Tom Welhouse leaves his waves to Richard Van Dreel. Bob Weishoff leaves his goiter pills to whoever likes them as well as he does. Mary Elyn Weishoff gives her hunting skill to any other girl who likes the sport. Joyce Stephani bequeaths her shorthand book to Jim Conradt. Marvin Schneider receives Donald Swiecichowski's Hofa Park dance. Kay Plamann will get Jim Tubb's ability to play football. Randall Thomas gives his saxophone to the new players. Yvonne Jenquin will receive Hugene Van Kauwenberg's pep and energy. Shirley Wagner gives her giggles in office practice to the future girl who sits in her seat, while Marjorie Zachow leaves her patience with Shirley Farrell. Kathy Enrico leaves her "happy go lucky" way to all the worriers. Janice Jenquin and Pat Lotter leave their ability to speak Spanish to next year's class. Ronald Vander Loop gives his "cat naps" to those who have trouble sleeping. Bernard Van Dreel gladly bestows his Chemistry book back to the school storeroom. Bev Riehl gives her smile to all S.H.S. Prom Queens.

We sincerely hope that next year's Senior class president will be willing to take Armen Armitage's ability in fine leadership.

The Prophecy

In 1960, we find LaVern Sassman, the famous adventurer, never quite willing to settle down, planning a world wide excursion. Telephone operator, Joyce Heuser, switches him over to Information Please, Marilyn Schreiber, (who is always ready with any answer). She finally connects him with the traveling bureau, where he speaks to an enterprising young businessman, Leslie Wagner, at the main desk. He makes an appointment with the secretary, Mary Lou Fischer, to plan the trip that will go down in history.

As he boards a TWA plane, after checking with the mechanics, Leslie Mueller, Warren Fassbender, Ronald VanderLoop, and thanking Stewart Droeger, owner of the largest greenhouse in Wisconsin, for the lovely flowers, he stops to chat for a moment with the pilot and co-pilot of the plane, Bob Eick and Donald Maleug, respectively. Airline Stewardesses. Bevery Riehl and Ilamae Stephani show him to his seat where he joins his interpreter, Pat Lotter, who will accompany him to the foreign countries included in his trip. On the plane he chances to meet two of his former high school classmates, Madame Janice Jenquin, on her way to Paris to introduce some of her new fashions which are internationally noted, and Jim Seefeldt, professor at the University of Wisconsin, on his way to Finland where he seeks a mountain goat for experiment and research on the gastric juice of mammals to be done by Dr. Lawrence J. Wirth, assisted by Gerry Pautz, registered nurse.

As he is nearing New York, and looks out the window his attention is attracted to a pair of stunt flyers, the Daring Duo, Marlene Maass and Earl Euclide. As they start sky writing, he is very surprised to see the name of another of his classmates in the advertisement, "To be a dancing Don Juan, be taught by Jerry Zahn", assisted by Marilyn Mueller, at Arthur Murray Studio, 712 E. Mason Street.

After the pilots radioed the control tower the plane lands, LaVern decides it might be interesting to take a tour into the control tower. Here he sees Merle Krueger, and Orlo Moeller, noted for their speaking voices, and Armen Armitage, radar specialist with Don Abel as weatherman. After inspecting the station he is informed that there will be a 12 hour delay because of weather conditions. He hails a taxicab, driven by LeRoy Rahn and decides to "Paint the Town Red". Along the "great white way", are the names of Nancy Cook, famed star ot Metropolitan Opera, and Joan Daniels in a symphony orchestra. Also, appearing are Eugene Hebel, drum soloist and Randall Thomas, Sax player, for Stan Kenton's orchestra, which is appearing for the third consecutive month at the ultra-exclusive Club Zebra owned and operated by the Grady Brothers. He decides to stop and see how his friends are doing inside. After checking his hat with Joyce Kropp and Shirley Wagner, he is seated at a front row. Never running out of something to say and always keeping the audience laughing, Master of Ceremonies, Don Swiecichowski, keeps the crowd entertained while waiting for the floor show. He notices the Blom girls and Marjorie Zachow, in pert, starched uniforms waiting on table and Jeanette Klitzke, making quite a hit as a cigarette girl. Talking to Jeanette, LaVern hears about more graduates of "53".

Among the professional athletes are basketball stars Glen Rohm, LeRoy Blohm, Darrel Doersch, and Dennis Panetti. Playing football we find Jim Tubbs, Dave Wussow and Ken Braun.

Audrey Fischer and Jane Zillmer are Powers Models, with Audrey modeling knit dresses while Jane specializes in bathing suits. Noreen Gilbert has joined her husband in the teaching profession. Carol Peterson and Ruth Reinke are working with children up to 2 years at an orphanage called the "Cradle".

As a result of Mr. Behrendt's tremendous office practice class, Geraldine Schroeder, Loretta Malueg, Joleen Mueller, and Helen Kaczrowski are employed as secretaries in various offices.

A graduate of the University of Wisconsin, Marlene Sherman, is putting her "never-lose-an-argument" talent to work, for she is a noted woman lawyer.

Farming the good old terra ferma of Wisconsin are Richard Haefs, John Leisgang, and Hugene Van Kauwenberg. Making the rounds among the farmers is Jack Melotte, veterinarian. Connected with farming in a different way is Marvin Biese, and as the name implies,—he raises bees.

And then Jeanette tells him about Bill Otto, who is in a very interesting profession, gravestone engraving. Above his door we see,—"For your motto, —See Otto!"

William Vanden Huevel and Bernard Van Dreel have gone into the used-car business, and are operating the "Take it or Leave It" garage. Bill has never given up and still has hopes of selling his old car.

High School pals Jean Eick and Lois Verbeten have gained nationwide publicity, attempting, for the third time, to swim the Gulf of Mexico. They have become honorary members of the Frogmen's Club.

Attempting the art of being a housewife are Carol Cornelius, Susie Bloedorn, and Ardis Krause.

The delay of the plane lengthens into longer than was expected, and LaVern, anxious to be on his way, makes boat reservations on the SS Wisconsin and continues his tour.

On the boat, are Charles Sommers, county agent from Wisconsin, on his way to teach the Chinese farmers how to raise "corn beef and cabbage", and Bernice Leisgang, home demonstration agent accompanying him to teach them how to cook it. They bring to his attention a Newspaper flash. "Former Kathleen Vanden Heuvel, recently wins Mrs. America finals in California." They haven't forgotten Kathleen's charm from her high school days. Paging through the paper further it is interesting to note that Irene Schmit has replaced Dorothy Dix, in writing her Love Lorn column.

Relaxing after the evening meal, the colored television seems to be the most popular form of entertainment, so he finds an easy chair and is just in time for the 7:30 show "My Friend Margie", staring Marjorie Moser. Suddenly before the audience realizes the story is over, in brakes Wanda Rollo with a quaint tinkling song about "Super Suds, Super Suds". Lukas Berger is enjoying the American Life and has overshadowed the once famous Bob Hope with his "Laugh and be Merry" program. Janet Ziesemer is also working with television, she does the laughing for the Shadow.

As LaVern settles down in his seat to relax, he hears a mighty "crack" behind him. He turns around, only to see an old friend and classmate, JoAnn Van Straten. After having a long talk with her, he finds out she is the chief gum tester for the Wrigley Company. She is on her way to France to introduce a new Wrigley product to the people. From the conversation LaVern gathers Jo Ann enjoys her work very much and is having a "crackin" good time.

The ocean voyage is a very eventful and interesting one but finally the long waited for moment comes when the ship is docking in London. Kathleen Enrico with her bubbling personality is the first to greet the traveler as she is head of the tourist welcoming committee in London. While in London he visits the Scotland Yards. He learns that "Super-Sleuthe Hillsberg is working on a new case —"The Mystery of the Missing Eyeball."

Paris, France is a highlight of the tour and after a lunch strictly Ala Francoise, in a little French Cafe operated by Doris Ganzel with Barbara Jordan assisting, LaVern attends the art exhibit and is especially pleased with the paintings of James Wolff and Jean Martin, Americans exhibiting at Paris. The Ringling Bros., Barnum and Baily Circus is completing a European tour in Paris and top billing has been given to Elaine and Harold Lange, acrobatic duo of the circus. Carol Jens and Thomas Welhouse are daredevil motorcycle riders, promising a thrill to all. Bob Weishoff has done quite well in the circus too, advancing from head clown to assistant to the assistant vice-president of the circus.

The name of Madame Sharon Swann is being flashed in neon lights in Paris as the most original French Hair Stylist.

After a short stay in Paris, he moves to Iran, where as always, the oil business is booming. Amidst the rush and gush we find Bob Coonen and David Consoer, the wealthy oil tycoons. Continuing down into Egypt, LaVern decides to pay homage to his ancient ancestors, and visits their tombs. As he approaches the entrance to the tomb, he recognizes the guide as Mary Ann Goettel.

To finish the tour, LaVern plans to visit Ethiopia. In the deep dark jungle, he finds Joyce Stephani and Violet Cornelius teaching the values of health and sanitation. He also sees Mary Elyn Weishoff, famous wild animal huntress, preparing for an adventurous elephant hunt. Last but not least, he finds Lynette Veitch now a missionary. She is loved by all the natives and leaves an impression on the minds of everyone who sees her sitting under a coconut tree, donned in a Panama hat, reading her own poetic works to the natives.

Due to a limited amount of time for his trip, LaVern only visits for a short time at each stop and then continues his trip in the direction of the Orient. Working for the Immigration Board in Hong Kong are Jane Hartwig and Eunice Wendt as nurses, filling out the health reports of the travelers.

His destination for the last part of his trip is South America. As he docks in Peru, he hears of a great bridge being constructed across the Amazon. LaVern thinks this an almost impossible feat, but, after learning that the chief engineer is Gary Mayer, he knows that the job will be done well, because Gary is world famous for his ability in the engineering field.

After a week in Peru, LaVern decides to sail for home. On his way he thinks of the happy years at S.H.S. and wishes everyone "Lots of Luck".

All Ashore That's Going Ashore--

Each year the senior class takes over the project of publishing the high school annual, the Ripper. The students constantly try to improve the annual and to make their book "special". This year's staff wondered how many annuals had been published before theirs, so they did some research. Here are some of the interesting facts they uncovered.

The first Ripper on file was printed in 1922, when the newspaper was titled "The Frog Corner's Gazette" and the school featured an orchestra. Because of the long span of years between the Rippers, the 1927 and 1937 books contained an alumni directory. The copy for the books was typed and then photographed.

In 1937 the new addition to the building was pictured in the Ripper. S.H.S. sponsored a Carnival rather than a Homecoming, but the organizations were similar. In 1941 the forty-page annual was re-named the Ka-Na-Da-Yen, but only for one year. The '42 annual first mentioned the Blue Jay and in 1943 S.H.S. had its first fellow cheerleader. We were reminded of the war when the Serviceman's Honor Roll and the Victory Corps appeared in the '43 edition.

As we paged through the Rippers of 1944 through 1952, we found that Mr. Patchett became Principal of S.H.S. in 1946 and in 1947 Seymour had a Homecoming instead of a Carnival. The senior class of 1951 introduced the hard cover again, after being absent for a number of years, while the class of 1952 increased the number of pages to sixty-eight and improved the quality of the cover. Seventy-two pages make up the nineteenth edition of the Seymour High School annual, and the class of 1953 boasts of a circulation of 500.

We believe the Ripper means more to the graduates as time passes by, and we wish success to the staff of the twentieth edition.
